Alevoo Healthy Beauty is dedicated to the crafting of entirely natural cosmetics and beauty products, whose main ingredient is our organic extra virgin olive oil which has Protected Designation of Origin (Andalusia-Spain).

Pure first cold press organic extra virgin olive oil is a natural cosmetic rich in powerful natural antioxidants polyphenols and vitamin E, in vitamin A, D and K, and in unsaturated fatty acids (predominant is oleic acid) which are essential in regenerating the epidermal barrier. Its reparative, purifying and antioxidant properties deeply moisturize and nourish the skin while preventing from premature aging. Our products provide the daily dose of strength for a healthy and hydrated skin while protecting it from inflammation and external agents.

Alevoo Healthy Beauty products are dedicated to all family members' well-being providing adults&kids with a sustainable and healthy solution to their beauty needs. Our commitment is to share the health benefits of the organic extra virgin olive oil worldwide with our exclusive natural cosmetics.
